

Artist Information and FAQs

When do the programs begin and end?

The programs begin in January 2025 and run through December 2025.

Do I have to live in the United States to apply?

No, you do not have to live in the United States to apply.

How much is the stipend?

The stipend through Fermi Research Alliance, LLC is $2,000 USD.

How much does it cost to apply?

There is no fee to apply to either program.

How do I apply?

You apply to either program via a Google Form. Please note that an artist/composer statement and letter of intent, resume/CV, samples of work, and one letter of recommendation are also required.

If I applied before, can I apply again?

Yes, you can apply again to a program even if you've applied in the past.

I have a full-time job. Can I still be a guest artist or guest composer?

Yes. employment does not exclude you from participating in either program.

Will I have to finish my project within the allotted timeframe?

While specific details and limitations vary, the goal is to have your work completed by the end of 2025.

Are there facilities at Fermilab available for use during the program?

There are currently no Fermilab facilities available for use by guest artists/composers. When visiting Fermilab proper ID is required. <https://fnal.gov/pub/visiting/index.html>

Will I have to present my work to the community?

Yes, and you are highly encouraged to participate in the public engagement aspect of your program within your community as well as Fermilab's community.